WILLIAM G. BURNS,
Section Director.

PANSIES.—Lovers of pansies enjoy strolling through the court house plaza these days. The pansy beds are dressed in their best clothes.

MISDEMEANOR CASES.—Justice Burnett accumulated three misdemeanor cases during the Sunday recess, all of which will be tried today.

HOME FROM THE SPRINGS.—Mr. Thomas D. Bennett has returned from a sojourn at Castle Creek Hot Springs, in an effort to dispose of a bad attack of rheumatism.

MINING LOCATIONS.—Mrs. Lizzie M. Warner has filed notice of location of the Lizzie Warner claim in the SW 1/4 of sec. 5, T. 1 N., R. 4 E., and George W. Sanders has filed notice of the location of the Clara, Jessie, Glenn and Alice mines.

BERRIES FROM MEXICO.—A local dealer received a crate of strawberries from Yrapato, several hundred miles south of the Arizona line, on the Mexican Central railway. The berries are very good ones and reached here in perfect condition. They sell at 25 cents per box.

RETURNING HOME.—Mr. Sumner Clark of Peoria, Ill., who has been visiting here for some time, left for home last night. His brother, Chauncey Clark, of Peoria, Ariz., who has been quite ill, is considerably improved and will be out in a day or so.

NEW CORPORATION.—The articles of incorporation of the Alpha Gold Mining company were filed with the county recorder Saturday. The capital stock is $1,000,000, and the incorporators are W. A. Lloyd, L. G. Pickard, N. A. Mitchell, A. E. Hufstader and H. D. Mackay of Ackron, Mo.

GOLF EXPERT LEAVES.—A. J. Christie, the expert, who has been instructing the members of the Country club in the intricacies of golf, will leave on Wednesday evening for Chicago, where he is instructor at the Riverside links. Mr. Christie is a very clever golfer and has taught a great many players since he came here three months ago.

WEARIN' OF THE GREEN.—Green was the order of the day Sunday, and every true Irishman was bedecked with shamrock and green tie, as well as many with no Celtic blood, but who desired to aid in the commemoration of St. Patrick's day. Even the grass in the court house plaza took on a brighter hue and in a quiet way Phoenix honored the saint who drove the snakes from the old sod. There were no formal ceremonies.

HAS MANY WIVES.—H. F. Maitland, of Denver, was in the city yesterday, en route from the Ajo mine district to his home. Mr. Maitland says that Pima county officers are in search of Julio Castellanos, a Spaniard, who is believed to have wives scattered all over the southwest. He says that Castellanos worked for a while at the Ajo mine, until the brothers of a Mexican girl, whom he had abandoned a month before, came to search for him. He escaped and is believed to have crossed the international line.

THE ALGONDONES OPENING.—By act of the late congress the Algodones grant, south of Yuma, will be opened for settlement today. The tract comprises nearly 50,000 acres, some of it fine land.

GREAT SUNDAY SCHOOL TOUR.—The International Sunday School executive committee has planned a great Sunday School tour which extends across the continent. Five practical Sunday School specialists start in Virginia in February, and will visit eighteen states, closing their work in Kansas, after having been to the Pacific coast. This involves over 10,000 miles of travel for each member. The entire party will be present at the territorial convention at Prescott, Ariz., April 8-10. It will be a rare opportunity for the Sunday School workers of the territory, and it is expected many delegates will be present.

Just received, 1,000 gallons mixed paint which will be sold at lower price than elsewhere in the town.

NOTICE FOR MEETING.

A meeting of the Maricopa Press association is hereby called for Monday, March 18, 1901, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the office of the Southwestern Stockman, in Phoenix, for the purpose of electing new members and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

HARVEY J. LEE,

President.

CHARLES W. PUGH,

Secretary.

HE WAS WARY.

Speaker Henderson was too much for the Daughters of the American Revolution. They came to the capital and saw him but he conquered. He dodged them as long as he could, but finally they caught him. They sent committees to his hotel and to the speaker's room at the capitol, but his messenger always declared that he was not in. Finally they determined to lie in wait for him, and remained in ambush near the stairway that leads from the speaker's private office to the hall of representatives. The committee consisted of the wife of a prominent western senator, whose family has been intimate with the Hendersons for years, and two other D. A. R.s who did not know him so well. They wanted him to recognize one of their friends in the house to call up a bill donating Rawlins square in Washington to a site for a memorial hall which the Daughters of the Revolution propose to build. They have already collected $100,000 as a building fund and want the government to give them a site. The bill has passed the senate and would probably pass the house also if it could secure consideration, but the speaker is opposed to the giving away of any of the parks in Washington for any purpose, and will not recognize anyone to offer the bill.

He tried to avoid an interview, but the committee caught him as he was coming up the stairs and the senator's wife rushed at him saying: "We won't detain you but two minutes, Mr. Speaker."

"You are no two-minute girl," exclaimed Colonel Henderson, throwing up his hands. "You are good for two hours if you get a chance. But I know what you want, and there is no use talking about it. I'll be proud to see you on any other subject, but that bill can't pass this congress with my consent."—Washington Letter.
